

Campus Safety Requirements for Invited Academic Guests

The UC San Diego campus requires invited academic guests to comply with the following campus safety requirements.* Invited academic guests are non-UC San Diego employees who are invited by various UC San Diego officials (e.g., faculty, staff) to come to the UC San Diego campus and engage in academic-related activities (e.g., seminars, lectures, conferences, presentations). Invited academic guests may or may not be compensated; however, whether they are compensated or not, invited academic guests should review and affirm that they meet these requirements before coming to UC San Diego locations before each date of visit. If an invited academic guest is unable to or chooses not to comply with these requirements, they should refrain from visiting the campus.
